

HOLIDAYS SALES for 2012

We will be having sales throughout 2012 the week after the major holidays. During these sales only certain items will be sold at a discount that will be announced the month before each sale. These sale days are for our in-store and phone-order retail customers only. The sales will be for one week only and there will be no rain-checks.

The next sale days are Family Sale days February 21st – 25th when we will be featuring all the JUICEMAX powders – you will save 20% on each of these BarleyMax, CarrotJuicemax, BeetMax, and TrioMax (quantities limited to 3 of each per family).

Here is a list of the other Holiday Sales for 2012: Check the Holiday Sale Week tab often to know what we have on sale. A great way to stay stocked up with the products that help you to stay on the Hallelujah Diet and Lifestyle!
